In the presence of the attorney for the government, the defendant appeared in person on this date.

COUNSEL	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> WITH COUNSEL	Yolanda Barrera, Panel-Atty (Name of Counsel)
PLEA	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> GUILTY, and the court being satisfied that there is a factual basis for the plea.	<input type="checkbox"/> NOLO CONTENDERE <input type="checkbox"/> NOT GUILTY
FINDING	There being a finding/verdict of <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> GUILTY, defendant has been convicted as charged of the offense(s) of: Use of a Communication Facility to Commit Felony Drug Offense in violation of 21 U.S.C. § 843(b) as charged in the Single-Count Information.
JUDGMENT AND PROB/ COMM ORDER	The Court asked whether defendant had anything to say why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that:

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Oscar Mancia, is hereby placed on probation on Count One of the single-count Information for a term of three years under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U. S. Probation Office and General Order 318.
2. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment/placement of probation and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, not to exceed eight tests per month, as directed by the Probation Officer.
3. The defendant shall participate for a period of 12 months in the Home Detention component of the Location Monitoring Program which will include GPS monitoring, and shall observe all rules of such program, as directed by the Probation Officer. The defendant is to remain at this residence each day of the week from 10:00 p.m. through 6:00 a.m., and shall maintain a residential telephone line without devices and/or services that may interrupt operation of the monitoring equipment. The cost of the program is waived.

4. During the period of community supervision the defendant shall pay the special assessment in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment.
5. During the period of probation, the defendant shall participate for a full twelve months in the Homeboy Industries gang prevention program as directed by the Probation Officer.
6. When not employed or excused by the Probation Officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons, the defendant shall perform 20 hours of community service per week as directed by the Probation Officer.
7. The defendant may not associate with anyone known to him to be an Avenues or Drew Street gang member or persons associated with the Avenues or Drew Street gang, without the prior express authorization of the Probation Officer or the Court. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the defendant may associate with the following individuals, who are his relatives: his mother, Clara Campos; his step-father, Nozario Florez, and his uncles Sergio Diaz, William Real, and David Mancia. If any of those individuals are in penal custody during the period of probation, defendant may visit them, subject to the rules of the Warden. If they are not in custody, he may associate with them only inside their residence[s] or his residence. He may not knowingly wear, display, use or possess any Avenues or Drew street gang insignias, emblems, badges, buttons, caps, hats, jackets, shoes, or any other clothing, which evidences affiliation with this gang, and may not knowingly display any Avenues or Drew Street signs or gestures.
8. The defendant shall regularly make reasonable and diligent efforts to communicate with each of his five siblings to determine their progress with respect to educational needs, and compliance with the local and federal laws.
9. The defendant shall meet with the Honorable Judge Matz at least once every thirteen (13) weeks to discuss his progress and compliance under Probation supervision. Defendant's lawyer, the Assistant U.S. Attorney, the Probation Officer and a court reporter shall be present.
10. At least two weeks prior to the defendant's quarterly meetings with the Honorable Judge Matz, the defendant shall personally write and submit to the Probation Officer Court a letter documenting his progress and compliance under Probation. The letter, which shall be sent directly to his lawyer, shall also document his attempts at communicating with each sibling and the progress of each sibling.
11. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100,

USA vs. Oscar Mancia

which is due immediately.

All fines are waived as it is found that the defendant does not have the ability to pay.

To the extent defendant retained any rights to appeal, defendant advised to file a notice of appeal within ten days.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.

USA vs. Oscar Mancia

Docket No.: CR08-833-AHM

STATUTORY PROVISIONS PERTAINING TO PAYMENT AND COLLECTION OF FINANCIAL SANCTIONS

The defendant shall pay interest on a fine or restitution of more than $2,500, unless the court waives interest or unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth (15th) day after the date of the judgment pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3612(f)(1). Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3612(g). Interest and penalties pertaining to restitution , however, are not applicable for offenses completed prior to April 24, 1996.

If all or any portion of a fine or restitution ordered remains unpaid after the termination of supervision, the defendant shall pay the balance as directed by the United States Attorney's Office. 18 U.S.C. §3613.

The defendant shall notify the United States Attorney within thirty (30) days of any change in the defendant's mailing address or residence until all fines, restitution, costs, and special assessments are paid in full. 18 U.S.C. §3612(b)(1)(F).

The defendant shall notify the Court through the Probation Office, and notify the United States Attorney of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay a fine or restitution, as required by 18 U.S.C. §3664(k). The Court may also accept such notification from the government or the victim, and may, on its own motion or that of a party or the victim, adjust the manner of payment of a fine or restitution-pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3664(k). See also 18 U.S.C. §3572(d)(3) and for probation 18 U.S.C. §3563(a)(7).

Payments shall be applied in the following order:

1. Special assessments pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3013;
2. Restitution, in this sequence:
 - Private victims (individual and corporate),
 - Providers of compensation to private victims,
 - The United States as victim;
3. Fine;
4. Community restitution, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3663(c); and
5. Other penalties and costs.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS FOR PROBATION AND SUPERVISED RELEASE

As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall provide to the Probation Officer: (1) a signed release authorizing credit report inquiries; (2) federal and state income tax returns or a signed release authorizing their disclosure and (3) an accurate financial statement, with supporting documentation as to all assets, income and expenses of the defendant. In addition, the defendant shall not apply for any loan or open any line of credit without prior approval of the Probation Officer.

The defendant shall maintain one personal checking account. All of defendant's income, "monetary gains," or other pecuniary proceeds shall be deposited into this account, which shall be used for payment of all personal expenses. Records of all other bank accounts, including any business accounts, shall be disclosed to the Probation Officer upon request.

The defendant shall not transfer, sell, give away, or otherwise convey any asset with a fair market value in excess of $500 without approval of the Probation Officer until all financial obligations imposed by the Court have been satisfied in full.

These conditions are in addition to any other conditions imposed by this judgment.
